

New Director of Strategy and Partnerships appointed at Accord

01 August, 2019

Accord Housing Association has appointed Claire Nuttall as its new Director of Strategy and Partnerships.

The newly created position will see Claire take on responsibility for developing relationships and partnerships with existing and new stakeholders, as well as support senior management across a number of projects.

Claire joins Accord from The ExtraCare Charitable Trust and has eight years' experience of working within the housing sector, with her background predominantly in finance.

She said "I am looking forward to my future with Accord; helping the organisation build partnerships and grow to maximise its potential."

Claire joined Accord in July 2019 and will be based at the organisation's West Bromwich office.

Chris Handy, Chief Executive at Accord added: "We are pleased to welcome Claire to Accord to help lead the organisation to new heights and grow partnerships, and I am looking forward to working with her to help achieve this."
